Riders Code of Conduct

- Observe the rules in the “UCI BMX Rule Book”.
- Do not prevent other riders from riding to the best of their ability.
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree consult the “Rider Advocate”.
- Treat all other riders as you yourself would like to be treated.
- Profanities, threats, physical violence or harassment in any form towards other riders or officials is unacceptable.
- Do not bully, harass or take unfair advantage of other riders.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all riders and officials regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Officials Code of Conduct

- Be consistent and courteous when making decisions.
- Keep up to date with the latest rules and trends in officiating.
- Condemn unsporting behaviour and promote respect for all competitors.
- Be a good sport yourself, actions speak louder than words.
- Set an example, your comments should be positive and supportive.
- Place the safety and welfare of riders above all else.
- Give all competitors a “fair go” regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Privacy

The personal information that you provide to us on this form will be kept private and confidential. Only authorised people will be allowed access to this information and it will only be used for the primary purpose of registering you and for conducting BMX race meetings.

We may provide this information to our partners only in conjunction with and for the purpose of conducting BMX race meetings. For example, we may provide information to Union Cyclist Internationale (UCI), BMX Australia (BMXA), other registered BMX Associations or Clubs in Australia.

If you provide incomplete or inaccurate information, we may not be able to register you correctly or assess correctly your ability to compete in races or it may impinge on our ability to render medical treatment, if necessary, as a result of a racing accident.

We will only keep your personal information for as long as it is needed. If your personal information is no longer needed for the purpose it was collected for, we will destroy it.

If you believe that the privacy of your personal information has been compromised, you are entitled to complain to our privacy officer who will objectively and impartially assess your complaint.

Parents Code of Conduct

- Encourage your children to participate, do not force them.
- Focus on your child’s efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Appreciate good performance by all competitors and officials.
- Respect officials’ decisions and teach your child to do likewise.
- Never ridicule or yell at a rider for making a mistake or losing a race
- Never badger, harass or use sarcasm to motivate your child.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every rider regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Member Protection

BMX SA aims to providing a sporting environment free of discrimination and harassment (sexual or otherwise) where individuals are treated with respect and dignity and where children are protected from abuse.

BMX SA is committed to ensuring that the safety, welfare and well being of children is maintained during their participation in BMX activities sanctioned by the association.

We will not tolerate behaviour which constitutes abuse, discrimination or harassment under any circumstances and will take disciplinary action against anyone who breaches this commitment.
